

TPS-OIC Rules of Origin was ratified by Saudi Arabia

TPS-OIC Rules of Origin, which has been ratified by nine Member States until now, will enter into force after the deposition of the instrument of ratification of the tenth Member State by the OIC General Secretariat.

In this regard, the Member States which have not done so are kindly invited to sign and ratify the Rules of Origin.

In addition, the Member States which have ratified the TPS-OIC Rules of Origin are kindly invited to complete the necessary internal legislative and administrative measures such as printing TPS-OIC Certificate of Origin and providing specimen impressions of stamps to the TNC Secretariat.