5. H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN, President of the Republic of Turkey and Chairman of the COMCEC, had sent a message to the Meeting. His message was read out by Metin KIRATLI, Deputy Secretary General of the President of the Republic of Turkey. In his message, H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN stressed that the world and particularly the Islamic World has been going through a difficult period with financial and political crisis for the last few years and mentioned the necessity of cooperation among the Member States to address the common challenges through deepening solidarity, finding proper solution models and minimizing our disparities.

6. H.E. ERDOĞAN also expressed his satisfaction for the successful implementation of COMCEC Strategy through the convening of the Working Groups in each cooperation area and implementation of cooperation project under the COMCEC Project Funding and called upon all Member States to actively participate in the activities within the framework of implementation of the COMCEC Strategy.

7. Emphasizing the importance of trade cooperation among the Member Countries, H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN stated that however, current trade figures are not up to the desired level and the share of OIC Member Countries, which is approximately 11 percent of total global trade, must go far further. In doing so, H.E. ERDOĞAN stressed that in order to play a more active role in global trade, significant improvements need to be made on the export structure of Member Countries through environmentally friendly, high value added industries and services based on innovation.

8. H.E. ERDOĞAN also underlined the importance and potential of Islamic finance following the global economic crisis and invited all Member Countries to contribute actively to the works carried out under the financial cooperation of COMCEC.

9. H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN concluded his message with best wishes for the success of the Meeting.

(A copy of the text of the Message of H.E. President Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN is attached as Annex II.)

10. Following the message of H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN, H.E. Mehmet CEYLAN addressed the meeting. In his statement, H.E. CEYLAN highlighted the recent world economic developments in terms of fluctuation of oil prices which has major macroeconomic, financial and policy implications on OIC economies both for oil-importing and exporting member countries.

11. Recalling the recent structure of world economy, H.E. Mehmet CEYLAN underlined that enhancing our production base and diversifying our economies and export products would be a crucial measure for alleviating possible problems to be caused by economic crises and shocks. H.E. CEYLAN also indicated that for a more sustainable and foreseeable world economy, there needs to be a reasonable correlation between demand and supply of commodities and their prices. In doing so, H.E. CEYLAN emphasized that rather than market distortions and speculative actions, economic dynamics should play the major role in the determination of price; otherwise, our economic endeavors might always be beset and disturbed by sharp and unrealistic and unpredictable price fluctuations.

12. H.E. CEYLAN underlined that the share of Intra-OIC trade in total trade of Member States corresponded to 18,7% in 2013, and as of 2015 Member Countries should concentrate on achieving 20% intra trade target through putting TPS-OIC and other concrete projects into practice.

13. Underlining the main challenges such as unemployment, resistance to macro and micro reforms, lack of focus on inclusive growth, weak linkages between the finance sector and the real sector, weak corporate governance in the financial institutions, H.E. CEYLAN also stated that Member Countries should intensify the cooperation in the finance sector within both the available projects on our agenda and the initiation of new projects. In doing so, H.E. CEYLAN stressed the importance of the establishment of OIC Gold Exchange and OIC Real Estate Exchange to further cooperation in this critical sector.

14. H.E. CEYLAN also pointed out the importance of the theme of this year's Ministerial Exchange of Views Session, namely "Post-2015 Development Agenda and Development Challenges of the Islamic Ummah: Improving Basic Service Delivery" for achieving sustainable development for all and also embracing the next development agenda through 2030.

15. H.E. CEYLAN concluded his speech by delivering his wishes that the 31st Follow-up Meeting of COMCEC would contribute to peace, prosperity and welfare of the Islamic Ummah.

(The text of the Statement of H.E. Mehmet CEYLAN is attached as Annex III.)

In his message, H.E. MADANI highlighted the major achievements recorded so far which contributed to collective efforts at scaling up intra-OIC trade, investment promotion, capacity building and infrastructure development. H.E. MADANI also pointed out the importance of the trade facilitation measures and the elimination of tariff and non-tariff barriers. H.E. MADANI also underscored the need to identify the major constraints and challenges facing Small and Medium Enterprises in the Member Countries.

MESSAGE OF H.E. RECEP TAYYİP ERDOĞAN,
PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY AND CHAIRMAN OF THE COMCEC

Thirty First Meeting of the
Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC
(Ankara, 13 May 2015)

Distinguished Chair,
Esteemed Members of the Follow-up Committee,
August Brothers,

I would like to extend my heartfelt and warm greetings to you all.

May the Peace, Mercy and Blessing of Allah be Upon You.

I would like to welcome all representatives to the 31st Follow-Up Meeting of the Standing Committee for Economic and Commercial Cooperation of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation.

I would like to express my pleasure to see you all in Turkey

I wish this meeting of the Follow-up Committee, which is a major body of the COMCEC, to lead to fruitful conclusions for the entire Islamic world and humanity.

I would like to congratulate all brothers and sisters who will contribute to the meeting with their valuable ideas, and I believe that important policy recommendations will emerge to strengthen our cooperation.

Distinguished Delegates,

The whole world and Islamic countries in particular have gone through a torrid time for the past couple of years.

Unfortunately, many Islamic countries have experienced conflicts, financial and political crises.

I personally believe that the majority of such crises and tensions can be prevented and resolvable.

We need to be able to show the will to offer solutions through our common values, legitimacy, political dialogue, consultation, solidarity and collaboration for problems emerging across the region.

As a matter of fact, no one does and will benefit from such tensions and crises.

Rather than wasting efforts and resources of the Islamic world on such problems, it is now time to produce a solution and a model for development, welfare and justice without turning our minor differences into major issues.

In this context, I consider COMCEC as an important platform and I particularly would like to express my appreciation for the vigorous effort exerted by COMCEC to offer solutions for our economic problems.

Distinguished Delegates,

As you all know, the efforts exerted since the inception of the COMCEC in 1984 are ongoing in a much more effective and systematic manner under the COMCEC Strategy adopted in 2012.

I would like to express my pleasure to see the completion of the 5th round deliberations of the Working Groups.

I attach importance to elaborative discussion of problems in thematic areas and developing major political recommendations.

In case we attach due importance to the implementation of political recommendations, the political convergence that we have been longing for among member countries will come to fruition.

I would like to call upon member countries, which have not done so, to join the Working Groups and take an active part in them as soon as possible.

I also welcome the selection and kick-off of 17 new projects under the "Project Financing Mechanism", another important means introduced by the Strategy.

The most innovative aspect of these projects is the fact that they enable member countries to provide COMCEC objectives with direct support.

Distinguished Delegates,

We are the Ummah of a Prophet who engaged in trade even before the Prophecy, stated that out of ten parts, nine parts of one's sustenance is in business, and recommended us to trade.

Commercial activities constitute the basis of economic relations among countries.

High-volume commercial relations among countries make contributions to the political convergence and thus eliminate potential conflicts.

Within this framework, the COMCEC has kicked off a great deal of programmes and held a series of events in line with the objective to put the economic potential of member countries into effect.

Thanks to these efforts exerted particularly in recent years, the OIC member countries have made a substantial progress in total trade volume, trade with other OIC countries, and total production.

However, I would like to point out that the current figures are not at the desired level.

Accounting for approximately 11 percent in total global trade, the share of OIC Member Countries needs to be increased to a much higher level.

Likewise, we need to further increase the intra-OIC trade, which stands at 18.7 percent, to a much higher level.

In order to play a more active role in global trade, we need to introduce major improvements in export mechanisms of member countries.

Major losses of income experienced by some member countries due to the decrease in oil prices have once again proved the importance of the added value in trade and product range.

We see some developed countries exerting efforts to improve their environmentally-friendly industries and service sectors manufacturing high added-value technological products based on innovation rather than raw materials.

In such an environment, many Islamic countries are now required to transform their export mechanisms based on raw materials or semi-processed products.

In order to do so, we immediately need to take necessary steps in areas ranging from education, innovation and manufacturing infrastructure to improvement of human and institutional capacity.

Distinguished Delegates,

The necessary conditions to put the Agreement on Trade Preferential System of the OIC Member Countries (TPS-OIC) into force as the most important project of the COMCEC in trade were met in late 2014.

I hope that necessary practical steps to put this momentous Agreement into force will be taken as soon as possible.

Following this stage, I hope that member countries will begin to reap benefits from advantages to be introduced by the Agreement.

I hope that we will see some tangible developments in this respect prior to the COMCEC meeting to be held in November and I would like to call upon all respective member countries to complete their preparations for the Agreement and be a part of this important system.

Distinguished Delegates,

In the wake of the global financial crisis, the importance and potential of the Islamic Financial instruments began to attract financial markets a lot more.

It is undoubtedly our common wish to enable member countries to be the main providers of the Islamic Financial instruments shaped by our own values in nature.

Within this framework, I would like to reiterate the importance of meetings held under COMCEC by the COMCEC Financial Cooperation Working Group, the OIC Member States' Stock Exchanges Forum, the COMCEC Capital Market Regulators Forum, and the Central Banks and Monetary Authorities of the OIC Member States.

I would like to take this occasion to call upon all member countries to make active contributions to the efforts in the field of financial cooperation.

Distinguished Chair,

Distinguished Delegates,

The share of developing countries in global economy increases on a regular basis.

In spite of major recent improvements in the national income of developing countries, the improvements in social and economic development indicators have been limited.

Sustainable development ranks first on the agenda of the United Nations.

"Post-2015 Sustainable Development Goals (SDG), which will replace the "Millennium Development Goals", are expected to be adopted within this year.

As you know, 21 members of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation are among the least-developed countries with economic and social development in particular of crucial importance for them.

On this occasion, I would like to point out that I find it pertinent to discuss over "the Post-2015 Development Agenda and Development Challenges of the Islamic Ummah: Improving Basic Services Delivery" for the Exchange of Views Session at the 31st Meeting of the COMCEC.

In line with these thoughts, I wish the 31st Meeting of the Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC to lead to fruitful conclusions for all member countries, and I would like to extend my heartfelt greetings to all guests and delegates and wish them success in their endeavors.

OPENING STATEMENT BY H.E. MEHMET CEYLAN, DEPUTY MINISTER OF DEVELOPMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY

Thirty First Meeting of the
Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC
(Ankara, 13 May 2015)

As-Salamu Alaikum,

Esteemed Members of the Follow-up Committee,
Distinguished Guests,

I wish to express my pleasure in meeting with you once again on the occasion of the 31st Meeting of the Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC. I would like to welcome you all in Ankara with my sincerest regards.

During the Meetings of the Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC, we review the implementation status of resolutions taken during past COMCEC sessions and prepare necessary recommendations for forthcoming meetings. In this regard, as the Follow-up Committee we have an important task here in terms of dealing with challenges regarding the implementation of the COMCEC resolutions, taking necessary steps and composing the agenda of the next COMCEC Session. I wish you all a fruitful meeting in advance.

Esteemed Participants,

As you are kindly aware, oil prices fell sharply between June 2014 and January 2015 after four years relative stability at around 105US Dollars.¹ Decrease in oil prices has major macroeconomic, financial and policy implications on our economies. Oil-importing countries will benefit from this decline through reductions in their energy bills but at the same time they will be challenged by losses in their export markets and tourism revenues. Meanwhile, oil-exporter countries will be influenced much more adversely, particularly if their exports are mainly based oil and oil products. Recent sharp decline in oil prices and resulting income losses of our oil exporting member countries have already caused serious setbacks especially in their budget balances.

As we touched upon in our previous statements on the occasion of various COMCEC meetings, fostering innovation and value addition, enhancing human capital and institutional capacities, boosting production base and diversifying our economies and export products would be crucial measures for alleviating possible problems to be caused by such economic crisis and shocks. Furthermore, an equitable income distribution, social inclusion and cohesion among the various segments of the society would help us in sustaining our development pace.

Moreover, for a more sustainable and foreseeable world economy, there needs to be a reasonable correlation between demand and supply of commodities and their prices. Rather than market distortions and speculative actions, economic dynamics should play the major role in the determination of price; otherwise, our economic endeavors might always be disturbed by sharp and unpredictable price fluctuations.

Low oil prices and widespread monetary easing are boosting growth in the world's major economies. However, global economy is still fragile and unstable. In order to boost the global economic activity, low oil prices are not sufficient alone. The positive effect of low oil prices will remain modest without implementing suitable measures towards structural reforms.

Distinguished participants,

According to IMF data, world economy grew by 3.3 percent in 2014 and it is expected to grow around 3.5 percent in 2015 and 3.7 percent in 2016.² While global economy recovers slowly in 2014 much the same as in 2012 and 2013, China and India are expected to grow considerably during next two years. China is expected to grow by about 7 percent annually in both 2015 and 2016 while India will grow by 7.7 percent in 2015 and 8 percent in 2016. On the other hand, the euro area is projected to grow at a 1.4 percent rate in 2015 and a 2 percent pace in 2016. United States is in a better position; it will grow by 3.1 percent this year and by 3 percent in 2016 while Japan is projected to grow by 1 percent in 2015 and 1.4 percent in 2016.³

²Dünya Ekonomisindeki Son Gelişmeler Bülteni, EMSA, Küresel Ekonomik Gelişmeleri İzleme Değerlendirme Diareşi, Ocak-Mart 2015.

In the meantime, OIC countries witnessed a slowdown in economic activity and their average growth rate declined from 4.6 percent in 2012 to 3.9 percent in 2013. They will likely experience a recovery with growth rate estimated to be realized at 4.1 percent in 2014. Likewise, the growth rate of Islamic countries for 2015 is forecasted at 4.9 percent.⁴

OIC countries had approximately 11.3 percent share in the world trade in 2013.⁵ According to UNCTAD data, exports and imports of developing countries increased by 3.3 and 4.2 percent respectively from 2012 to 2013. For the same period, OIC Member Countries' exports remained at the same level while their imports increased by 4.7 percent.⁶ More dramatically, the share of mineral fuels, oils and related products in total OIC exports increased from 56.9 percent in 2010 to 61.8 percent in 2013.⁷ These indicators and recent sharp decline in oil prices further underlines the necessity of economic reforms I mentioned before towards reducing our dependence on the exports of limited number of commodities.

The share of Intra-OIC trade in total trade of Member States corresponded to 18.7 percent in 2013. We need practical and effective instruments to further increase this ratio to enhance our economic potential. In this regard, we must put TPS-OIC into practice as soon as possible. TPS-OIC has already entered into force legally. However, there is a need to update our concession lists and finalize other preparations to make this very important trade project operational.

Efficient cooperation in the field of standardization is also crucial for facilitation of trade among our member countries. In this regard, I am glad to see that SMIIC attracts more attention from our countries. At present, 32 OIC countries are members of SMIIC. I have no doubt that with strong support of its members, SMIIC will deepen its activities and enhance our cooperation in the field of standards.

Distinguished Guests,

In order to provide sustainable economic growth, fiscal and structural reforms are of crucial importance. In addition to developments taking place in international arena, unemployment, resistance to macro and micro reforms, lack of focus on inclusive growth, weak linkages between the finance sector and the real sector, weak corporate governance in the financial institutions are some of the serious problems facing the OIC Member Countries. To collectively overcome these difficulties, we should intensify our cooperation in the finance sector both within the available projects on our agenda and initiation of new projects in this critical sector. In this respect, I would like to highlight the two proposals made by H.E. Recep Tayyip ERDOĞAN, President of the Republic of Turkey and Chairman of COMCEC in his statement last November in 30th COMCEC, namely Establishment of OIC Gold Exchange and OIC Real Estate Exchange. I am sure these proposals will be diligently processed by the relevant COMCEC forums for the benefit of member countries.

As you all know, political challenges and problems influence our economies considerably. Therefore, it is important to ensure political stability in our region in order to improve investor confidence of national as well as foreign investors. We should find practical and sustainable solutions to the problems that we face in our region. Peace and stability will still be lacking in our region if we cannot solve our regional problems mainly through our own means. Deepening our cooperation with brotherly Islamic countries in all areas including economic and technical cooperation will certainly facilitate the solution of economic and political problems in our region.

In this respect, making best use of existing cooperation tools for learning from each other gains a paramount importance. Our member countries can benefit from the COMCEC Working Groups by partaking actively in their meetings. I am quite pleased to see that 43 out of 57 OIC Member Countries have registered to at least one of the COMCEC Working Groups. I invite again the member countries which have not registered to all of the Working Groups to do so in order to benefit from this crucial mechanism.

Within the framework of COMCEC Strategy, working groups have successfully concluded 5 rounds of meetings in 6 cooperation areas since 2013 and deliberated on important issues and themes in each cooperation area. I am of the view that the recommendations of these meetings will provide concrete policy options for our member countries. In fact, these meetings are convenient platforms to share experiences and best practices and will serve to approximate our policies among the OIC Member Countries in the long run.

Regarding the second mechanism of the Strategy, the Project Cycle Management, as a result of the first project call made in September 2013 and 8 projects were implemented successfully. The second call was made in September 2014 and 17 projects have been selected. After the signing ceremony held in early April, 2015, implementation process have already commenced. We are proud to observe that our member countries are engaging more and more to this important technical cooperation mechanism. In this regard, I strongly believe that project owners will successfully implement the activities and come up with significant outcomes in line with the project purposes.

I would like to highlight that efficiency of the COMCEC programmes and projects and the success of our initiatives for economic and commercial cooperation depends on your efforts and contributions. Seizing the opportunity, I would like to invite all member countries to benefit more from the mechanisms brought by the COMCEC including Working Groups and PCM.

Esteemed Members of the Follow-up Committee,

We should keep in mind that economic growth cannot always generate sufficient decent and productive employment opportunities. We should also put into practice efficient activation policies in order to orientate the poor towards employment along with comprehensive social security programmes to reduce the negative effects of inequality. Income inequality, lack of access to basic services such as health, education, water and electricity especially of vulnerable groups are some of the other social challenges in our countries. Enhancing social protection, promoting productive and decent work, strengthening redistributive policies are some of the important tasks in front of us.

These issues are also included in Post-2015 Development Agenda and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) that will probably be announced in September this year. The Post-2015 Agenda and the new development framework will bring a shared responsibility to countries and organizations to follow up the process. This includes working together at national, regional and international levels to achieve sustainable development for all and embrace the next development agenda through 2030.

In this regard, the selection of “Post-2015 Development Agenda and Development Challenges of the Islamic Ummah: Improving Basic Service Delivery” as the theme of exchange of views session of the next COMCEC Ministerial Meeting is of crucial importance. After the adoption of SDGs and on the eve of significant milestone developments in this important agenda of the international community, I believe that it would be quite pertinent as OIC countries to discuss these issues thoroughly and make required preparations at the earliest. To a great extent, our progress will be shaped by our readiness.

Distinguished participants,
Ladies and Gentlemen,

As I conclude my remarks, I sincerely wish that your deliberations during the 31st Meeting of the Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC contribute to peace, prosperity and welfare of the Islamic Ummah.

Thank you.

MESSAGE OF H.E. IYAD AMEEN MADANI,
SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE ISLAMIC COOPERATION

Thirty First Meeting of the
Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC
(Ankara, 13 May 2015)

Your Excellency Mr. Cevdet Yılmaz, Minister of Development of Turkey, Honorable Delegates,
Distinguished Participants

Assalamu Alaikum wa-Rahmatu Allah wa Barakatuhu

I am pleased to address the 31st Meeting of the Follow-up Committee of COMCEC, as you set out to deliberate on the implementation of the various decisions of COMCEC, since the last session of the COMCEC General Assembly held in Istanbul, Turkey on 25-28 November 2014. Permit me to, first and foremost, express my appreciation, through the Chairman, to His Excellency President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, Chairman of COMCEC, as well as the Government and esteemed people of the Republic of Turkey for their constant support to the activities of the OIC, particularly the activities of COMCEC.

Since the last follow-up meeting, the General Secretariat has continued to give effect to the various decisions and resolutions of the OIC, aimed at consolidating socio-economic cooperation among our Member States. The major achievements recorded in this regard are highlighted in my report before this august meeting. However, for the purpose of emphasis, I wish to briefly mention a few of the activities, which have contributed to our collective efforts at scaling up intra-OIC trade and investment promotion, capacity-building and infrastructure development.

In the first instance, the staging of the 1st Investment Forum on OIC Plan of Action on Central Asia in Dushanbe, Tajikistan on 27-28 October 2014 was largely facilitated by the closer collaboration among our executive institutions and a wide range of stakeholders, including the Turkish Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges (TOBB). The success of this Forum can be seen from its identification of 23 priority projects for implementation in Central Asia, foremost among which is the flagship Regional Power Transmission Project, known as CASA 1000.

In the second instance, the commemoration of Al-Quds Al-Shareef as the first winner of OIC City of Tourism Award 2015 was flagged-off during my visit to the third holiest Islamic city on 4th January 2015. I must place on record our commendation to the various OIC institutions, which have so far contributed to the year-long activities to mark this award. I should also commend Turkey's contribution of 74 books to the various national libraries in Al-Quds Al-Shareef. As we prepare for the second edition of this award, let me also seize this opportunity to congratulate the Government of Turkey on the conferment of the 2016 edition of the award on the city of Konya. It is my sincere belief that the series of commemorative activities, along with the implementation of our joint action on Islamic tourism, would boost intra-OIC cooperation in this crucial sector.

The third noticeable action in my Report before this meeting revolves around our trade and investment cooperation. The completion of administrative requirements for the take-off of the Trade and Preferential System of the OIC (TPS-OIC) has, no doubt, paved the way for the resumption of the trade negotiation rounds and the implementation of the needed tariff measures to facilitate trade exchanges among our countries. However, as we proceed with these trade facilitation measures through tariff reduction and harmonization measures, it is gladdening to note that the gradual elimination of non-tariff barriers is receiving the attention of our officials.

It is, in this regard, that I call for the implementation of the outcome of the OIC High Level Forum on Trade Facilitation and Single Window Initiatives for Enhanced Regional Economic Cooperation held in Casablanca, Morocco on 25-26 February 2013 by our institutions, notably the Islamic Center for the Development of Trade (ICDT) and International Islamic Trade Finance Cooperation (ITFC). I should recall here the need to factor into our trade facilitation agenda the outcome of the Expert Group Meeting organized by the Islamic Development Bank on 28-29 April 2015 on the role of inter-regional trade in strengthening economic cooperation among OIC member states. This is with regard to the progressive elimination of non-tariff barriers and cooperation with sub-regional organisations within the OIC, which is in line with the objective of the proposed Workshop to be organized by Saudi Arabia on the Single-Window Modality in due course.

Your Excellency,
Distinguished Delegates,

The other major issues, which the General Secretariat is desirous of according due priority during the year revolves around the consolidation of our joint actions on the development of the Halal Standards, accreditation and certification procedures as well as the replenishment of the poverty alleviation fund. I wish to recall here that there are still some pending issues on the three documents so far approved by the OIC on our Halal Standards, Accreditation and Certification and to confirm that efforts are now underway to explore, in collaboration with our relevant institutions, such as ICDT, International Islamic Fiqh Academy (IIFA), Standards and Metrology Institute for Islamic Countries (SMIIC), and Islamic Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture (ICCIA), the definitive resolution of such pending issues, which will pave the way for the adoption of a unified but binding OIC Halal Standards and Procedures.

In the same vein, the on-going action, in collaboration with the IDB Group, to organize an open-ended meeting of micro-finance institutions in OIC member states during the year is aimed at identifying the major constraints and challenges facing Small and Medium Enterprises in our communities. This measure is timely, considering the proposed the convening of a special funds mobilization session, during the 2016 Council of Foreign Ministers, to increase available resources for the Islamic Solidarity Fund for Development (ISFD), the capital contributions on which still stands at 26.8% of its target capital.

Mr. Chairman,
Distinguished Delegates,

I should not end this message without intimating you of the latest development with regard to the elaboration of OIC 2025: Programme of Action. Based on the draft document prepared by the relevant OIC institutions and Standing Committees, two Expert Group Meetings were held at the OIC General Secretariat on 18 March and 6-7 May 2015 respectively. However, the EGM has resolved to complete its assignment on a later date before it could present its final draft document to the Secretary General as requested in the enabling resolution.

As I wish this meeting a fruitful deliberation, let me underscore the commitment of the OIC General Secretariat to continue to give prominence to the activities of all OIC institutions as we seek to improve synergy and coordination for the purpose of realizing our common goals and objectives.

I thank you all for your kind attention,

Wassalamu Alyakum wa Rahmatullahi wa Barakatuhu

6. The Committee elaborated on the possibility of re-structuring the format of the List of Activities and requested the relevant OIC Institutions to convey their list of completed and planned activities aligned with the COMCEC Strategy to the CCO by September 30th, 2015 at the latest.

(The list of activities organized and to be organized by the OIC Institutions aligned with the COMCEC Strategy in 2015 is attached as Annex 1.)

Enhancing Cooperation and Coordination Among the OIC Institutions

7. Regarding the first sub-item, namely Conducting Joint Activities, the Committee was informed by the IDB Group representative of the preparations for the model project on joint activities including all the relevant OIC Institutions working in the field of economic and commercial cooperation. The Committee requested the IDB Group to finalize its work and share it with the relevant OIC Institutions two months before the next the Sessional Committee Meeting.

8. Highlighting the importance of joint activities organized by the OIC Institutions, the Committee discussed the challenges (i.e. limited financial resources, overlapping activities and logistical issues, etc.) faced by the OIC Institutions in conducting joint activities. In this respect, the Committee noted that the OIC Institutions' existing facilities (conference halls etc.) may be utilized in conducting joint activities.

9. Regarding the second sub-item, “Raising Awareness of the OIC Institutions’ Activities”, the Committee was informed by the ICCIA representative about the preparations for the guideline for increasing the awareness of the Member Countries and the private sector on their activities. The Committee asked the ICCIA to finalize the above-mentioned guideline and share it with the relevant OIC Institutions at least two months before the next Sessional Committee Meeting to get their views and comments.

10. The Committee stressed the need for coordinated efforts for long term and sustained visibility of OIC Institutions and elaborated on how to enhance awareness on the OIC Institutions’ programs/projects/activities. It was noted that preparation of high quality promotional materials (brochures, visuals, documentary, etc.), updating the web-sites of the OIC Institutions, displaying promotional materials and publications of the OIC Institutions, organizing press conferences might be important measures in this regard.

11. Regarding the third sub-item, “Enhancing Cooperation with other Regional and International Organizations”, the Committee noted that the contributions of the OIC to the implementation of the SDGs may be one of the agenda items of the OIC-UN Coordination Meetings.

12. Regarding the incorporation of the OIC Member Countries as a group in the statistical databases of the relevant international organizations, the Committee was informed by representative of the SESRIC that the issue is on the agenda of the 5th Session of the OIC Statistical Commission to be held in 12-14 May 2015 in Ankara. It was noted that SESRIC, as the Secretariat of the Statistical Commission, would follow this issue and report the outcomes to the next Sessional Committee Meeting.

CLOSING SPEECH BY H.E. EMRE YUNT,
AMBASSADOR, MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE REPUBLIC OF TURKEY

Thirty First Meeting of the
Follow-up Committee of the COMCEC
(Ankara, 14 May 2015)

Distinguished Members of the Follow-up Committee,
Esteemed Delegates,

After intensive deliberations, we have successfully concluded the 31st Follow-up Committee Meeting of the COMCEC. We have drawn up the agenda of the 31st Session of the COMCEC and reviewed the issues on the agenda with a view to enhancing cooperation among the Member Countries. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all delegations for their active participation to the Meeting as well as their valuable contributions to the deliberations.

Distinguished Delegates,

OIC Region has a great potential for development. Young and dynamic population, geo-strategic location, natural and mineral resources and most importantly our rich cultural heritage and high values are the main strengths of our region. Yet, we have to admit that, on the top of this great potential many of the OIC Member Countries have been facing with various social and economic challenges. Unfortunately 21 of our Member Countries are still under the least developed country classification and 30 OIC Member Countries are among the International Development Assistance (IDA) recipient countries. There is indeed an urgent need to improve current socio-economic state in the OIC Region. I sincerely believe that our potential could only be materialized through effective cooperation.

In this respect, as the highest economic and commercial cooperation platform of the OIC, COMCEC has been exerting efforts to further cooperation among the Member Countries since its establishment. It is our great pleasure to see that efforts and outcomes of the COMCEC have been steadily increasing after the operationalization of its Strategy in 2013.

Distinguished Guests,

I would also like to briefly elaborate on some important issues that were highlighted in our deliberations during the Meeting. I believe we have been making good headway towards realization of our noble objectives. Implementation of the Strategy is progressing quite well. In less than 3 years, 29 Thematic Working Group meetings were organized. During these meetings, as an outcome of evidence based discussions on our common development challenges, various key policy recommendations were developed.

As the COMCEC Coordination Office has already briefed us extensively regarding their specific work in each of the six cooperation areas, I will not give more details but I would like to stress that it is crucially important to have Member Countries' active involvement to the work of the COMCEC. In this sense, it is really encouraging that member countries have been quite active in the meetings and have increased their utilization from COMCEC project funding. I would like to remind you that COMCEC is a member driven organization, thus success of the activities, projects and programs under its umbrella depends mostly on your participation and contributions.

Trade Preferential System Among the Member States of the OIC, TPS-OIC has been on our agenda for some years awaiting for implementation. It is a great pleasure for us that necessary requirements for the realization of the System were finally completed by the end of 2014. At this stage, there are some minor actions to be taken by the Member Countries for the implementation of the System. COMCEC Coordination Office has already initiated action towards that end. Seizing this opportunity, I would like to call upon all our Member Countries to become part of the System by taking necessary actions.

Esteemed Delegates,

Regarding the efforts under the financial cooperation, I would like to highlight our recommendation for requesting the Secretariats of the OIC Stock Exchanges Forum and the COMCEC Capital Markets Regulators Forum to conduct feasibility studies on gold and real estate exchanges among the OIC Member Countries. I strongly believe that we have to continuously enrich our agenda with new ideas and proposals.

Distinguished Delegates,

Poverty Alleviation has an important place in the global development agenda. There has been extensive talks and negotiations for the last years to finalize the UN Post-2015 Development Agenda and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). It is also noteworthy that the theme of the exchange of views session of the 31st COMCEC Session was designated by our Member Countries as “Post-2015 Development Agenda and Development Challenges of the Islamic Ummah: Improving Basic Service Delivery” and this issue will be deliberated by the sixth meeting of the Poverty Alleviation Working Group for submitting proper recommendations to our Ministers. As we have heard yesterday, a Joint Study is currently being conducted by the CCO and the IDB. The Study will mainly focus on the Post-2015 Development Agenda and implementation of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in the OIC Member Countries.

We also observed noticeable progress in the relevant initiatives of OIC institutions, namely the Islamic Solidarity Fund for Development, Special Programme for Development of Africa and the OIC Vocational Education and Training Programme (OIC-VET).

Esteemed Guests,

Before concluding, I would like to thank the Members of the Follow-Up Committee, the OIC General Secretariat, SESRIC, the IDB Group, ICDT, ICCIA, SMIIC, and OISA, for their participation and valuable contributions to the meeting. I would also like to thank our colleagues in the COMCEC Coordination Office, staff on duty in this Organization, interpreters, revisers and translators for their untiring efforts which helped rendering this meeting successful. I wish you all a safe trip to your home.

Thank you.
